

Wilma Campbell
Delton

Passed away unexpectedly December 18, 2003 due to complications following injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Wilma was born December 27, 1947 in Ann Arbor, MI, the daughter of Wilfred and Betty (Hamlin) Bolzman. A loyal employee of WWMT Channel 3 for 22 years, Wilma went back to school while raising her family, and received her nursing degree from Kalamazoo Valley Community College. An Emergency Room nurse at Borgess Pipp Hospital in Plainwell for seven years, she was always busy, taking care of people and helping others. Wilma also enjoyed crocheting, reading, traveling, and spending time with her family. Wilma was an active member of Faith United Methodist Church in Delton, and in 1998, she traveled on a mission trip to Kazakhstan. She is survived by her son, Brian (Ivanka) Campbell of Chelsea, MI; daughters, Dawn (Mike) Bork of Delton, and Brenda Campbell of Hickory Corners; a sister, Carole (Paul) Whittaker of Addison, MI; and four grandchildren, Alex and Sara Bork, Derrick Martz, and Sequoyah Millard; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; and two sisters, Judy Eberts and Loretta Hatley.
