

William R. DeWitt

Bill (William R.) DeWitt passed away September 27, 2006 of cancer. He is survived by his wife of 35 years, four children and their spouses, and five grandchildren. He had an engineering degree from Virginia Military Institute and a Juris Doctor from the University of Michigan. He spent his entire career with ExxonMobile as an engineering manager and, most recently, helped develop the oilfields in offshore Angola.